OFFICE ORDER

SUBJECT: CREATION OF TAX POLICY RESEARCH UNIT(TPRU)

As a follow up of the report of Tax Administration Reform Commission, and considering the requirement of having a research arm for assisting the Government and to bring coherence in policy making, a Tax Policy Research Unit (TPRU) is created under the direct supervision of Revenue Secretary to carry out the research on the basis of empirical data. The Tax Policy Research Unit (TPRU) will be a multi disciplinary body with the following objectives:-

- (i) carry out studies on various topics of fiscal and tax policies referred to it by CBDT and CBEC and will provide independent analysis on such topics
- (ii) will also prepare and disseminate policy papers and background papers on various tax policy issues;
- (iii) will assist Tax Policy Council chaired by FM in taking appropriate tax policy decisions; and
- (iv) liaise with State Commercial Tax Departments.

For this purpose the TPRU may also interact with various research institutions, wherever necessary. The TPRU will prepare for every tax proposal an analysis covering the following three points:

- a) The legislative intent behind the proposal, i.e., why this proposal is being framed and what is the policy objective
- b) Expected increase or decrease in tax collection through the proposal; and
- c) The likely economic impact (positive or negative) through the proposal (other than the effect on tax collection)

Tax Policy Research Unit shall comprise of officers from both the Central Board of Direct Taxes and Central Board of Excise and Customs as well as economists, statisticians, operational researchers, legal experts. Member (L&V), CBDT and Member (Budget), CBEC will be the link officer between TPRU and CBDT and CBEC. The unit will be headed by an officer of the level of Chief Commissioner at functional level alternatively from CBDT and CBEC for a fixed tenure, who will directly report to Revenue Secretary.
